

Phoenix Flames Seconds made it five wins from five as they extended their lead at the top of the Mixed Second division. Carly Horsler and Terry Maylin won three perfect rubbers for Phoenix and were backed up by a brace from Vikki Walker and Ben Bradford and a single rubber from Tracey Carey and Rohan Subasinghe to secure a 6-3 victory on the road. Mike Smyth and Sue Mills, Keith Wood and Farnaz Siddiq and Jamie Cole and Caroline Trace all won one each for the home team who remain one off bottom.

Up in the Mixed Premier, Westcliff leapt up to first with a 6-3 win at Eastwood. Toby Moon and Nicola Waller, Lee Scott and Adrienne Munro and Bryn Gillard and Philippa Pearson all won two rubbers each to secure victory for the away side. However, none of them could stop Kirsty Binstead and David Wenn who won a hat-trick for Eastwood.

In the Men's First division, Westcliff Seconds edged out SLH Rayleigh 5-4 to return to winning ways. Mark King and Lewis Barr recorded a perfect three rubbers and were supported by a double from James Hookway and Russell Blunt. They also had 15 year-old Anthony Weingarten make his debut alongside another 15 year-old in Tom Kirby, but they just missed out on taking a rubber as they lost one 21-18 in the third. Peter Hall and Joseph Garnett got a brace for Rayleigh with a single rubber each from Adam Whiting and Sam Partridge and Jinu Jacob and Togy Philip to help them move off bottom.

Finally, Phoenix Flames Seconds earned two victories in a week in the Masters Premier. Their first was a 5-1 triumph away at Westcliff. Robert Dunn and Terry Maylin both won three perfect rubbers each while Adrienne Munro and Barbara Childs won the point for Westcliff.

The other came at home against reigning Masters Champions Fitzwimarc. Tracey Carey won a hat-trick for the home team with Sara Thompson and Terry Maylin getting a brace each as they moved up to second. Paul Chaplin helped Fitz to their two points but they drop into third.
