

East Thurrock made it two wins from two in the Ladies Premier with a 5-1 victory over Westcliff. Courtney Downey and Rebecca Terry both won hat-tricks for the visitors with the latter not dropping a game. They move back into second with victory. Nicola Waller and Adrienne Munro won the rubber for Westcliff who remain winless and one off bottom.

In the division below, Eastwood Seconds needed a 6-0 win to keep their slim title hopes alive but could only beat SLH Rayleigh 4-2. Dawn Muggleton won a hat-trick for Eastwood with Laura Whiteman and Debbie Moon getting the other rubber for victory. Jan Watt picked up the two points for Rayleigh who are four points from safety.

The Ladies Second division clash between Westcliff Thirds and Fitzwimarc finished in a 3-3 draw. Sandy Woolacott triumphed in all three of her rubbers for Westcliff while Emma Dixon, Kay Bailey and Liz Cullen all won two rubbers each. Fitzwimarc remain top and six points clear of Westcliff Thirds.

Fitzwimarc thrashed fellow Mixed Premier strugglers Westcliff Seconds 8-1 at home to move off the bottom of the table. Angela McDaniel and Spencer Collins and Rebecca Terry and Oliver Escott both won hat-tricks without dropping a set, and Marie Baker and Alan Adkins won two rubbers. Robert Perry and Emma Scott got the point for the away side who slip to the bottom.

In the division below, Fitzwimarc Seconds made it four wins from four against league leaders Eastwood Seconds. Matthew Smith and Pam Lee, Jay Crewe and Donna Venables and Peter Smith and Julie Ingham all won a brace each for Fitz. Peter Brumwell and Clare Roberts secured a perfect three rubbers who remain nine points clear in first.

Finally, Hawkwell picked up just their second win of the season in the Men's Second division with a 5-4 victory away at David Lloyd Southend. Keith Wood and Andrew and Alan Morriss and Jamie Cole both won two rubbers each and were supported by a single win from Matt Smyth and Russell Dobson. Andrew McMahon and Nishchal Tanna secured a perfect three rubbers for the home side with Yu Wang and Brodie Beavan winning one rubber.

Player of the Week - Rebecca Terry
Team of the Week - Hawkwell