

There were two matches in the Mixed Premier at opposite ends of the table. Eastwood and Fitzwimarc had both just won once all season but it was the former who triumphed 5-4. Matt Allum and Emma Harris won all three rubbers and Adam Sibley and Charlotte Mortlock secured two wins for victory overall. Spencer Collins and Angela McDaniel picked up a brace with Sam Cheung and Julie Ingham and Ryan Pinnock and Rebecca Terry getting one each in a narrow defeat for Fitz.

At the opposite end, East Thurrock ended Westcliff's unbeaten campaign so far with a 5-4 at home. Caroline Felton and Phil Tuffee and Courtney Downey and Kesh Naidoo both secured braces and were supported by a single win from Will Sands and Natalie Smith as they closed the gap on the leaders to nine points. Adrienne Munro and Lee Scott and Toby Moon and Philippa Pearson both won two rubbers for the visitors.

Down in the Mixed Second division, Westcliff Thirds did continue their perfect season as they beat lowly Phoenix Flames Thirds 7-2 away. Vicki Russell and Mark King and Barbara Childs and David Clark both won three rubbers each and were supported by a single rubber from Hazel Keeble and Tom Kirby. Jo Howard-Simpson and Russell Dobson and Anne Wallis and Danny Peach each got a point for the home side who remain one off bottom.

Two sides without a win this season faced each other in the Ladies Premier and it was Eastwood who triumphed for the first time 4-2. Kirsty Binstead won all three rubbers while Charlotte Mortlock and Emma Harris got the other for the win. Vicki Russell helped Westcliff to their two points.

In the Ladies Second division, Phoenix Flames Seconds won 5-1 away at Hawkwell. Tracey Carey and Vikki Walker both secured three rubbers for Phoenix with the latter not dropping a game. Brenda Emptage and Caroline Trace picked up the point for Hawkwell.

Southend just maintained their unbeaten record against Fitzwimarc Seconds in the Men's First division with a 5-4 victory. It was a tight match as six of the nine rubbers went to three games but Andy Brown and Pratheek Badrinath and Alan Gibbens and Tom Pennington both won two rubbers each. Phil Crabtree and Jon Desmond got the other for Southend to help them stretch nine points clear at the top. Martin Everitt and James Wilson triumphed in all three of their rubbers and Jay Crewe and Patrick Baker picked up one rubber for Fitz who stay third.

Finally, Fitzwimarc Thirds recorded just their second win of the season with a 6-3 victory away at David Lloyd Southend. Adam Peters and Mike Vardy picked up a hat-trick with Ben Bradford and James Williams grabbing a brace and a single win for Ian Moorcroft and Adam Reader. Andrew McMahon and Nishchal Tanna won a double for the home side with Colin Campbell and John Hodges winning one rubber.

Player of the Week - Emma Harris
Team of the Week - East Thurrock