

Leighway retained their Ladies Premier title after a 6-0 victory against already relegated Eastwood. Lynne Swan, June Hammond, Susan Crompton and Mia Petchey made up the winning team for the home side, with none of them dropping a game. Kirsty Binstead and Laura Whiteman came closest for the visitors. Victory meant they beat East Thurrock to the title by four points as they lost just once all season.

However, East Thurrock were able to celebrate winning the Mixed Premier for the first time as a 9-0 victory away at Fitzwimarc meant they pipped Westcliff by three points. Kesh Naidoo and Courtney Downey, Phil Tuffee and Caroline Felton and Natalie Smith and Will Sands all recorded hat-tricks, with Kesh and Courtney not dropping a game. Rebecca Terry and Alan Adkins came closest for Fitz. Success for East Thurrock here means they have done the league and cup double this season.

In the division below, B & BP had two matches to finish of their season. The first was an 8-1 defeat away at Fitzwimarc Seconds. Kera Lewis and Harris Foster won three perfect rubbers and were backed up by a hat-trick from Mair Dew and Oliver Smith and two from Mandy Holland and Peter Smith. Tamsin Collinge and Adam Cooper secured the point for B & BP.

They then responded by winning by the same scoreline against SLH Rayleigh. Tamsin Collinge and Adam Cooper secured a perfect three rubbers and were supported by a hat-trick from Emma Clark and Daniel Potter and a brace from Wendy and Paul Hyde. The victory helped them secure third spot. Jan Watt and Joe Garnett got the point for Rayleigh who will be playing in the Mixed Second division next season.

Finally, Phoenix Flames edged out Eastwood 4-2 to finish runners-up in the Masters Premier. Tim Baskett won all three of his rubbers for Phoenix with Mandie Breed and Sara Thompson getting the other for victory. John Kindred helped Eastwood to their two points as they finish third after promotion last season.
